“ I am heartbroken to learn of Sweet Becky's passing. She was someone I could count on over the many, many years to give good advice and to be a cheerleader. I am so glad our paths crossed all those years ago on the banks of the Chatthoochee in that welcoming cabin where we could talk the afternoon away and, I will miss my occasional opportunity to catch up with her at the tennis center in Peachtree City. Many prayers for all of you and especially Marilu, Tyler, and Julie. Kim Lavoie Hinely

“Becky was an amazing person, loving sorority sister and dear friend. We so enjoyed our time with Becky together with our sisters for the last two years. Becky never wavered in her faith in Jesus and sowed many seeds of faith along her journey. We shared our love of inspirational music trading many songs over the years that I will treasure. Becky will be so missed. Rest in peace Becky. 🙏❤️

Pat, so nice of you to leave a comment. I will make sure and let Mom and Woody know. This is Dotti Berry, Becky's sister. We looked all through Mom's address book attempting to find a phone number so that I could call you for Mom.

*“Becky has been a shining example of Christianity in her job at the Peachtree City Tennis Center. Her loving care and patience with my aging mother, Mary was above and beyond belief and so much appreciated by me, an often frazzled daughter. Her bright smile every time I walked in and saw her at the desk, just made my day. She was truly a light in the darkness. When I first learned about her diagnosis, she exclaimed to me: if they find a cure I'll get to spend more time with my loved ones on earth.....and if they don't I'll get to see my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ....a win win! You will be missed my friend but certainly there is no doubt where you are now in His precious arms as he welcomed a "good and faithful servant".

“Such a lovely, giving person. She was a wonderful role model and Christian example for my daughter, BRITTAN as she interacted with her good friend, Julie Grant! I know Britt has shared many memories of their growing up years—many made possible by Becky. Prayers for the family
