My condolences to the Crawford Family. My dad, Junior Helton, knew Jerry and Ricky. That's how I met both of them. May God be with you during this difficult transition. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“Ricky was certainly a great man who never met a stranger and he always found joy in taking care of others the best that he possibly he could. I know personally that he loved his family dearly, and he certainly spread love and peace along his life's journey.

As we all know, Ricky always did things on his own watch, and he left the world in the same fashion, doing it his way. As we find peace with his departure and the void in our hearts, he has left all of us, it's extremely comforting to know that he left peacefully without pain.

Our prayers are with the family and friends that are now feeling the pain without him. I know he would want us all to continue moving forward with our lives and to carry on some of his great traits in helping others when we can and spreading love and peace along our life's journey.

We pray that everyone finds peace with the loss of our Brother.

We love you Tricky Ricky - RIP man!

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends. Ricky and I went to school together. He was always so nice and friendly. The Lord is always with you and will help you through this. I hope you find comfort in knowing he is not sick anymore. What better place could he be than with Jesus.

Ricky has been a friend of ours for over 25 years and never hesitated to help no matter what we needed. Whether it was assisting me in coaching soft ball, working on the house, looking for car parts, upholstery/carpet work on a vehicle, or just stopping by to check in on us. If you needed anything Ricky was always my go to, he had an answer for it, or he would not stop until he go you what you needed He was a friend we could count on.. He even gave our son his nickname Joker.. He will be missed for sure and my heart mourns the loss of such a dear friend.. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Barbara, Angie, Brandon and the rest of the his family. Will miss you dearly my friend.
