“ Dear sweet (and very large) family of Ronnie's,

It was an honor and privilege to be involved in Ronnie's care. You were such a supportive and loving family and there are so many memories that you have to cherish of your son, brother, nephew, cousin, brother-in-law, and friend. He absolutely had a sweet spirit. I know that he knew how fortunate he was to have such an amazingly close family. You all honored his wishes so well. You all are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I attended school with Ronnie and Joey Wilbur. Two of the sweetest guys around. I was reading the story where Ronnie gave his coat to his friend. It is so awesome to know that the sweet kid turned into a good man. Rest In Peace Ronnie Wilbur. Your work is done on earth, my friend. Barbara McDaniel

“ I got to know Ronnie when he and I were working for my brother Bob in 2008. We were driving 4 hours a day to and from Lake Martin, Alex City, Alabama. Four hours a day to work 8 hours, grueling schedule. But I don't ever remember Ronnie complain, he was always upbeat and happy. Even when he lost his lunch box off the back of the truck, two times!

Also remember when he got a job with Food Depot, he was so happy and proud. Especially when he was given more responsibility. A good man, a happy man from inside despite external circumstances.

My prayers go out to Ronnie's Family, he will be remembered fondly.

“ Little Ronnie was as much a part of our family, growing up, as a little brother . But Ronnie wasn't pesky; he always seemed to be happy trailing along with whatever we were doing. I couldn't count how many times he spent the night. Ronnie was so quiet and easygoing, but always ready to jump in and help if needed, like following along when Daddy moved a house. I will miss his quiet presence.
