“Ruby, I'm going to miss you very much. We had become very close these last several years. Life is not what we always want it to be. Duke is going to be lost without you as well as your family. My condolence goes out to your daughters, Sandy and Debbie, and their families. Also to your brother, Junior, and his family.

“I came to know Ruby about a year ago when she joined our Pokeno group. I loved the way she matched her clothes from her nail polish to all her sassy jewelry; one classy lady. She was always a lot of fun to be around with some great stories to tell. My heartfelt condolences to her family and her beloved Duke. R.I.P. my dear friend, R.I.P.

“Ruby was one of the girls at our pokeno group. She always had stories to tell us about her husband. She was the life of the party and always dressed to impress. She was lively, vibrant and full of life. We connected right away and I will miss her terribly even in the short year I knew her. She was a classy lady who was fun to be around. We love you dear friend My sympathies to her family and her beloved Duke

“ Our deepest condolences to Debbie and Sandy and their families. Even though we hadn't seen Ruby in years, we have great memories of some wonderful times together. While looking through the photos online, it was remarkable that Ruby hadn't changed in over 40 years, instantly recognizable for her signature 'look'. She will be missed. Girls, know that your Toledo area family grieves with you.

“ I will always remember Mrs. Ruby for her wonderful smile her sweet stories of Duke and of course her wonderful pink nails. I met Mrs. Ruby in the hospital and she always brightened my day, even though she was sick when we spent time together she still had such a positive attitude. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and duke.
