“ Memories from Jo Ann Craig Joiner from Pampa

Dianne and I were in first grade together. She was always the best dressed student in the class. Ruth made beautiful dresses for her and always had her stunning red hair in perfect curls.

Dianne, Suzanne, and I began singing together in junior high. When we were in high school, we called ourselves “The Tri-Annes.” (Dianne, Suzanne, and Jo Ann). Ruth made us some beautiful costumes in which we performed at no cost all over town.

When Gerre and I married, Ruth, who always thought ahead, brought an iron. I can still see her on her hands and knees pressing the train of my wedding dress.

When we would visit Ruth and Tommy in Amarillo, her home was always beautifully decorated. She always made something delicious for us to eat.

Through the years, Gerre and I have received so many cards from Ruth. They always included a hand-written note of her love and encouragement.

In this short list of forever memories, I have written “Ruth,” but to me, she will always be “Mama Philips.”
