

Sara Elizabeth Haynes

July 8, 1923 - November 8, 2010

Sara Elizabeth Threatt Haynes, a resident of Moreland, passed away peacefully at her residence on November 8, 2010. She was born July 8, 1923 in Chesterfield County, South Carolina and was one of nine children born to the late Oscar Alexander and Lucy Jane Mahaffey Threatt. In addition to six of her siblings, she was preceded in death by her husband, James Lamar Haynes. They had been married for 50 years prior to his death in 1997. Sara was a graduate of Berry College in Rome where she attained her degree in education. She taught in the public schools in Coweta County for 30 years. She was an active participant in the community of Moreland and served as mayor for 6 years. A loyal and devoted member of Moreland United Methodist Church, she taught Sunday School and was the church organist for many years. Surviving Sara are her children Jimmy Haynes, Bill Haynes and his wife Bonnie and Betty Haynes Chase and her husband Richard. Her grandchildren are Larry, Brian and Matthew McDaniel and Sara and Amanda Chase. Also surviving are two sisters, Gertrude Potts and Julia Lyman. Funeral arrangements are by McKoon Funeral Home at 38 Jackson Street. The family will have visitation on Wednesday evening between 6:00 PM and 8:00 PM. The funeral service will be on Thursday, November 11, 2010 at 11:00 AM at Moreland United Methodist Church with Dr. David Brackman officiating. Interment will be in Southview Cemetery in Moreland. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Mrs. Haynes' memory to Moreland United Methodist Church 16 Church Street Moreland, Georgia

“ Mrs. Sara Haynes was my 9th Grade Homeroom Teacher at NHS and was one of the nicest and kindest Teachers that I ever had!!! Her sons , Jimmy and Bill were two of my closest friends growing up in the Moreland Community where I lived from 1950-1968. After graduating from NHS in 1968, I attended UGA and graduated in 1974. I Married my wife , Sherrie, and we moved toMadison, Ga. Where I have lived ever since. My Sympathy goes out to all of her Family !!!

“ Mrs, Haynes was a beloved teacher in high school sometime between 1948-1952 at ECHS in the old building. I took French from her two years, but both years, she was expecting a little one and we wound up reading Les Miserables! Happy memories. My sympathy is with her fine family. May God Bless You.

Mrs. Haynes was my 9th Grade Home Room Teacher and was one of the nicest and best Teachers I have ever had!!! My sympathy goes out to all of her Family, and especially to Jimmy and Bill who were close friends of mine!!! I especially enjoyed growing up in the Moreland community from 1950 till 1968. I have spent the rest of my life living in Madison, GA since finishing College at UGA!!!
