

Terry Theodore Cawley

March 20, 1941 - August 10, 2024

Terry Theodore Cawley, age 83, passed away peacefully on Saturday, August 10, 2024, at his home in Woodberry, GA. Terry was born on March 20, 1941, in Selma, AL, to the late Warren and Dorothy McDermitt Moody.

Terry lived a life rich in love, laughter, and dedication. As a father, he was a steadfast provider and a guiding light, always putting his family first and offering wisdom and support through every stage of life. He was a source of strength and encouragement, someone who could always be counted on for both serious advice and light-hearted humor. As a grandfather, Terry embraced his role with boundless joy and enthusiasm. His grandchildren were the apples of his eye. He took great pleasure in sharing stories, playing games, and creating lasting memories with them. His warm presence and gentle guidance will be deeply missed. A true friend to many, he had a remarkable ability to connect with people from all walks of life. His loyalty, kindness, and genuine interest in others made him a treasured companion. Whether through shared adventures or quiet conversations, he touched the lives of all who knew him.

The funeral service celebrating Terry's life is Friday, August 16, 2024, at 2:00 PM in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home, 38 Jackson Street, in Newnan, with Rev. Gary Boyd officiating. Burial will follow the service at Crouch Cemetery in Gay, GA. The family will receive friends on Friday from 12:00 PM until service time at the funeral home.

Condolences may be expressed to the family online at www.mckoon.com.

Along with his parents, Terry is preceded in death by his son, Kevin Cawley and brother, Jerome Cawley. He is survived by his son, Todd Cawley, and grandchildren, Josh Cawley, Kristin Moffitt, Kent Cawley, Rachel Cawley, Kara Linkous, and Noah Cawley. He is also survived by 10 great grand-children and 3 on the way.

“ I enjoyed going to Church with Mr. Cawley at Mt. Zion Baptist Church. His love for vehicles showed in the vehicles he restored and I loved his stories of how he fixed them. I have several pictures of some of them that he would drive to Church. I enjoyed talking with him and enjoyed his stories. He was a man of many talents. I am so sorry for your loss of such a great man.
