“ I could not help but notice how young Tyler is. I am sorry for your untimely loss. Here are a couple of scriptures that have given us comfort during times like these: (John 5:28-29) 28 Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life. . . (Revelation 21:4) 4 And God will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

“ Gina, Brian, Terry and Zack; My heart goes out to you all in your time of great loss. There are no words to express my sincerest sympathies for you all. Please take solace in knowing that your son, your brother was a wonderful human being and such a treasure. He was and will continue to be an inspiration to and for all that knew him. You have a wonderful family and all so loving. Tyler is a hero to so many and he will NEVER be forgotten!! He taught a lot of us that the things we often take for granted should be treasured and enjoyed. He showed us that no matter what life throws your way to always say I CAN and not to say I CAN NOT. He is watching over you all now and at long last he is happy and whole and you will see him again someday. Love you all .

“ I am praying for each one of Tyler's family. He was a courageous fighter. I never met him personally but I felt as though I knew him just from hearing his grandfather David talk and brag on Tyler constantly. Tyler and his family were a great family. God has a special angel in Heaven now. God bless each of you at this time in your life. I am praying for each of you for God's comfort. Call me if I can help you in anyway.

“ Brian and Gina, there are no words that I can express that will ease or take your pain away. Tyler was loved by all who met him and even those that didn't get the chance to meet him, myself along with my family are so very blessed to meet Tyler and your family and become as close as we all have gotten, we are a family now. We will always remember the day we meet Tyler and your family he will always be in our heart, thoughts and dreams we love him dearly, were here for you and all of you are in our daily thoughts and prayers,

“ We attend church with the McDonnell family and through them learned about your courageous son Tyler. It has been our privilege and honor to go before the throne of grace on behalf of Tyler and your entire family. We will continue to lift you before Father God as you grieve Tyler's passing, may you receive strength and comfort for each day and look forward to a glorious reunion in eternity. The Guerrieri Family, Joey, Tina and Megan Heb 4:16 Therefore let us come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

“ I really didn't know Tyler that well,but when i saw him in the halls at the beginning of the school year he always had a smile on his face. He never showed the pain he probably went through. He was just like a normal 12 year old boy. He will be dearly missed by many people, but now his fight is over, and he has no more suffering to go through. I will never forget you. -Kenneth

“ I'm Tyler's kindergarten teacher, Ms. Cathy's, daughter. I didn't really know Tyler that well but we went to the same elementary and middle schools. Tyler is teaching me so much because of what happened to him in his life. He was always smiling and never ungrateful and it's showing me that I need to be like that if he could've through everything he went through. I wish I could have known him better, he seemed like an amazing kid and friend. And an amazing fighter. Tyler, say hi to my grandmother for me. -Cali

“ To Brian,Gina, Terry and Zach, Beth and David, We have been neighbors' for years and during this time we have watch the children grow up and have their own children. Tyler was very special to us. He was the bravest boy I've know in his battle with cancer and when I talked to him he seemed wise beyond his years. We will not forget him. We pray that God will comfort you through the presence of His spirit and bring healing to your broken hearts. Love Jeff and Terry

“ To the Musslewhite Family: While I am a stranger to your family, we share the same last name (although a different spelling). I was not fortunate enough to have the honor of meeting your son Tyler, but reading the condolences I am convinced of his strength and courage. May God be with your family during this very sad time. “ What a blessing that Tyler had been in so many lives. He alone, along with your sweet family, encouraged my family to make "care packages" for those families that were suffering with their children at Children's Healthcare. You all taught my family to think of other's in a time of need. We collect full size shampoo's and care packages and pass them along to those in need. I think we will name our goody bags "Tyler's Treats" in honor of such a sweet boy! Toothpaste, hand lotions, and candy can mean so much to a family living in a hospital. Tyler's healing has taken place. Thank you for sharing him with us. Amy Dees

“ Being a teacher at Lee helped me get to know Tyler's story. My family and I would like to extend our deepest sympathy to your family. Creighton, my son, hopes that you can play with Kyara Dzenis up in Heaven and to give Jesus a high five. While we are sad here on this earth, we know that Heaven has been ringing with glory since you finally went home to rest in the peace that passes all understanding. We loved you and we love your family. Our prayers will continue for everyone involved. Because HE lives, we can face tomorrow...because HE lives, all fear is gone...because we know who holds the future....life is worth the living just because HE lives. Happy Homecoming Tyler!!!!

“ I went to school with Tyler at Lee. I liked him alot. I have been wearing the wristband every day since I got it even the days I went swimming this summer. I will miss him but I know he is not hurting anymore. Cancer still does not have him because now Jesus and God do and my Grandma is in Heaven and she likes kids, so maybe she will look after him. My mom said to tell you that your family is in our prayers.
