

Undrea Sheila Jackson-Furlow

July 9, 1952 - April 3, 2022

Undrea Jackson Furlow was born in Seneca, SC to Fred and Alberta Jackson on July 9, 1952. Throughout her life, Undrea was known for her charismatic and bubbly personality. She was kind and loving to all that she met. There was never an obstacle that she could not accomplish. Biologically she was the mother of her only daughter Angelique Dawn Dortch but she was a mother figure to everyone. She was the most loving doting mother that a child could have asked for. She later met her husband Johnny D. Furlow with whom she loved beyond measure. There were many things she was proud of but being a mother and a wife were at the top of the list. Undrea was one of the strongest people to grace this place called earth. Although she is not physically with us, her spirit, kind heart, laughter and love lives on. My mom will truly be missed by not only me but by everyone who loved and cared for her (and that was many). My mom prepared me for the day when she would have to leave earth but she always reminded me that although she is not physically with me she lives in my heart. Knowing that she no longer has to suffer in pain puts us at peace. We appreciate all the love and condolences to the Furlow Family. Our Queen Undrea will forever live with us and will always be missed.

Undrea is survived by her husband Johnny D. Furlow, her daughter Angelique D. Dortch, her sons, Johnny D. Furlow, III, Calvin T. Furlow, Arlinsen Furlow, Keith Furlow, Dimitri Furlow, Timothy Furlow, Okeichi Furlow her grandchildren Kenneth, Kameron, Skylar, Trochelle, Nova, Love, Aaliyah and Elizabeth amongst the long list of older grandchildren, great grandchildren, siblings, Ted Jackson (Sherri), Marie Prather (David), Marvin Brittingham (Tonya), Donald Jackson (Donna), Mary Smith (Harold), Lisa Randolph, nieces, nephews and friends whom she referred to as family.
