“ To the Gall Family: Your sweet mother was a dear and loving friend while she was here on Earth. When she came to visit her son Ray in Riva MD---she would call and talk with me--asking on what nights could she go to bingo with me. She loved going to Rod and Reel Bingo in Chesapeake Beach. She always had a smile on her face--and her laughter brought smiles to those around her. She will be greatly missed. I will always think of her as "one of God's angels" that graced us with her beauty inside and out.

She loved and talked about her loving sons. My deepest sympathy and love to all of you. Remember--she may be up in the heavens--above the clouds---but she will always be in your hearts and will look after you.

*Sincerely
Carole A. Buren
