“ Vic was an amazing individual. So talented and loving. I remember when he pulled out his guitar and sang a song for my Mother when at my Father’s funeral. He will be missed.

Suzie I did not know Vic. I think I met him once when you brought him during VBS set up. What I do know is the love and devotion you gave him . I know without a doubt that he felt your love and your continuous support for him. You were his rock. You were and are the most selfless person I know. Always wanting to do for the other person. Vic was blessed to have you for his mother. Im praying for you and Victor and I love you. Debra

My memories of Vic start with the first time I met that cute boy, visiting him soon after his birth. My hair got caught in the helicopter whirling around in his crib mobile. I was so proud of how Suzie was such a good mom and continued to be through out his life. One memorable time was when Vic was in his late twenties and we had a great conversation about the Bible. Vic loved to discuss the Bible with his Grandmother Brown as well. Much love to Victor and Suzie. Praying for the peace of Christ to rule your heart.
