“Mama, Setting here remembering the smile upon your face, and how it made the world light up, you were full of heavenly grace, No longer can I see your face, for you are with God above but your loving smile will always be with me. I know you wouldn't want to see me crying the way I do, but losing you was a part of me and it's hard facing each day without you. All that's left is sweet memories of you, my heart still aches in sadness and tears, oh how they flow! What it meant to loose you, no one will ever know. So if you hear me crying, It's something I can't control just understand my mother that I love you and miss you always. Joy

“Dearest Grandma Virginia, I thought of you with love today but that is nothing new. I thought about you yesturday and the day before that too. I think of you in silence, I often speak your name. All I have are memories and your picture in a frame. Your memory is my keepsake with which I will never part. God bless you in his keeping I have you in my heart.
