“ As an 18 year old boy I became pastor of Whitesburg Baptist Church. Tootsie and Eddie along with family on both sides became endearing friends. I baptized Tootsie in mid sixties. I spent endless hours in her home and at her table. Tootsie and Eddie were kind and generous to me as a young pastor who had little more than a calling to guide him. The events of their lives and influence have remained with me through 50 years of ministry. There are so many ways that I've been woven in the fabric of her life and that our her family. My thoughts and prayers to each member of her family. I had no idea of how young she was when she influenced my life in a warm and winsome way. I'm comforted with the words of the Psalmist who said: "...weeping endures for the night but joy comes in the morning." JW and Willene Wallis, Fayetteville, Georgia.

“ I have known Tootsie every since I was a little girl. She always treated me like one of the family. She was always so funny and she has always made me smile. I am sure there is a happy reunion going on in Heaven right now. I will keep you in my prayers.
