“ Wow, what a wonderfully unique individual Ms. Virginia Knox was. I had the pleasure of meeting her children of whom she was so supremely proud, each a reflection of the Mother they all shared and loved. Though my friendship with Ms. Virginia was brief, the memory of this great woman will be with me for eternity. Thanks for the Blessing you have all allowed me in knowing Your Mother. I will cherish the experience of knowing her and meeting all of you forever. Love, Jan

“Jill, Jan, Mark and Roy: I just received the news of your Mom's passing. A large part of my childhood has gone with her. You all know that your Mom and Dad were my second Mom and Dad. I sit here at this computer and am overwhelmed with sadness, trying to type threw my tears. Many, many memories I have with Jill and the rest of you. I know that I haven't been to Newnan very often, but when I did travel there, Knox Company was the first place I would go. God Bless you all. I am comforted by the vision of your Mom and Dad and my Dad being together. I love you all.

“ Dear Miss Virginia, You are a part of my earliest memories, and a founding member of my earliest expanded family. Even the last time we visited together, not so long ago thanks to my sister, that unique spark readily shone through -- sweet, charming hospitality with a certain familiar surety of spirit. And although we may not be able to visit quite the same way again, I may call on you from time to time. You see, I am attempting to raise my own child now, and beginning to draw on life as I've seen and experienced it. So I thank you for being a part of that, and in time, so I believe will my son. The effect you have had on so many for so long knows no bounds. Let your family, immediate and expanded, know that while they may miss your presence they will also never be without it. With love, sadness, and joy, -Kyle
