Wallace David Browning, Jr., 89, of Newnan, formerly of Fairburn, passed away Monday, December 1, 2025, at Westhill Newnan Crossing. Dave was born August 25, 1936, in College Park to the late W.D. Browning, Sr. and Katherine Mason Browning. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Frances (Fran) Butler Browning, on February 23, 2003, and by his sister, Jean Wheeler.

Dave grew up in College Park and graduated from College Park High School. While in high school, he worked at Gordy's Pharmacy in downtown College Park. After graduation, Dave went to work at Eastern Airlines, where he was a crew scheduler and man-power analyst. It was at Eastern Airlines where he met a pretty girl in the weather department named Frances Butler. They were soon married on March 30, 1957. After retiring from Eastern, he began a second fulfilling career at Chick-fil-A Corporate for 13 years. “ LeeAnn & family,

Heart felt sadness to each of you on the passing of David! He was such a great man! Always loved talking with him at Chick-fil-A. He was someone you could always count on to lift your spirits and to look out for you! I have missed him at the Support Center since he retired!!

I look forward to seeing him again in Heaven. Glad he is dancing and joking with Jesus and all those that have gone before him.

Continued prayers for the family in the days ahead as you experience life without David.

*Love & hugs in Christ,
Holly West*

“ So many wonderful memories with Dave and Fran, during the Eastern Airline days. My late husband, Harry and David worked together, as crew schedules. David was a good man and now at peace. Deepest sympathy to his family!
