“ I will always remember Wendy smiling and helping people. She was a special friend and a connection to my hometown of Moreland. I never think of Halloween without she and Steve coming to mind. They opened their home to family and friends and everyone had a grand time. We all loaded up in a truck or trailer with hay bales and drove to Newnan laughing. Those are happy memories linked to Wendy and the Bohannon and Myatt families. God bless each of you with his loving comfort.

“ I took over Wendy's duties in the ED of ordering supplies. I valued all her expertise and the advice she had to give so I could continue her tradition as a valued employee. So much respect.

“ I have so many memories of Wendy. At all the church dinners she was always there making sure everyone was taken care of. She was faithful in her church. I remember all the fun we used to have at her house especially the hay rides and her juice bag that Charles gave her to hang on top of the trailer. She was always there when one was sick or a person had passed away. She was the first to get there and the last to leave. Everyone loved Wendy. I love you, Wendy, and I will see you in Heaven.

Oh Wendy, this place is not the same without you. You will be missed more than you could ever have imagined. As the song goes “I hope you dance, I hope you sing in the angel’s choir and I hope the angels know what they have”. Rest my friend.

“ Dear Wendy’s Family,
I am so sorry to hear of Windy’s death. Wendy worked with my Wife, Mildred Jones, Who passed away last year, in the Emergence Room at the old Newnan Hospital in Newnan. I heard many stories.
Wendy was a sweet person.
May the Good Lord give you peace, love and contentment during this very difficult time.
God loves you,
Don Jones Sr.

Ms. Wendy was one of the first women we met at First Baptist Church-Moreland 12 years ago when we move here. Link and she always had a good time poking fun at one another and I always tried to give Link to her since she thought he was so great. Many laughs about that and other loving gestures between all of us. We will miss you but know she is in heaven where we all will meet again.
