As the father of Zachary, I could not ask for a better, more perfect service. Both pastors and McKoon Funeral home were phenomenal.

“ I never got the chance to meet Zach personally, but knew of him by living vicariously through his mom, Jen and the many amazing milestones and success stories she shared. This loss was one that hit me very hard as I looked forward to hearing about him, but I will cherish those memories and conversations! He definitely was an amazing young man and soldier as his strength shined through despite the trials. The young soldier now has his wings and I know he is looking down on everyone who loved him giving them his strength and love now.

Love you my Tuttle Family!

“Zach was a special gift from God. His smile, his hugs, his laugh were how he communicated an unconditional love. I learned from this wise child that there's no yesterday, no tomorrow only the moment to be lived and enjoyed.
